Submit FHA loans to the FHA's TOTAL Mortgage Scorecard for assessment through Loan Prospector

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) TOTAL Scorecard is a credit assessment engine developed and maintained by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to assess the credit worthiness of FHA borrowers, and to predict the default probability for FHA loan applicants. The FHA TOTAL Scorecard is available through Loan Prospector, making it easier for you to use Loan Prospector.

Key Requirements

- To assess loans using the FHA TOTAL Scorecard requires:
 - Merged credit report(s).
 - FHA Lender ID number on all loan submissions.
 - FHA Case Number on or before final submission.
 - Third-party originators (TPO) to enter their sponsoring lender's FHA Lender ID in the FHA Sponsor ID field.

Data Fields Required

- FHA Case Number
- FHA Lender ID
- FHA Sponsor ID

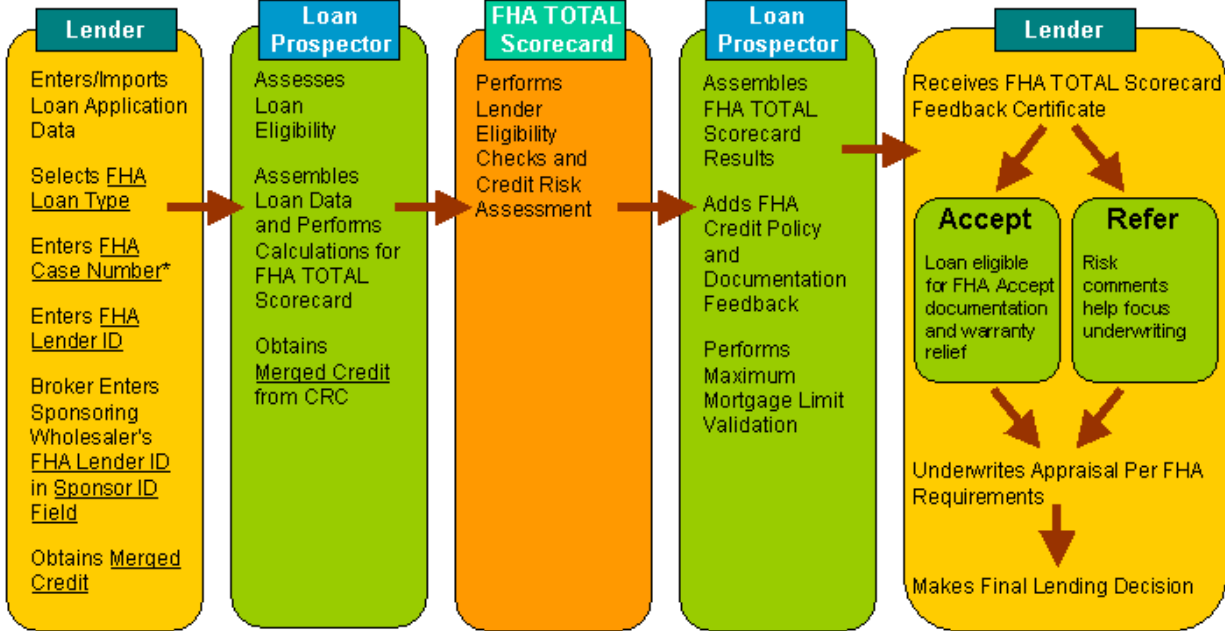

How to Get Ready

- Know your FHA Lender ID number.
- Know your sponsoring lender's FHA Lender ID number, if you are a TPO.
- Certify your FHA Lender ID number on FHA Connection at <https://entp.hud.gov/clas/>.
- Establish CRC agreements to obtain merged credit or use the merged credit reference number (MCRN) through Loan Prospector.
- Ensure you have the latest version of your LOS software; contact your vendor.
